

Yes, a picture is worth a thousand words. But you might like to see the words of the first promise of Christmas... words that brought faith-induced relief to Adam and Eve and all who follow in their steps of faith:

I (God) will put enmity between you (Satan) and the woman, and between your offspring and hers;
he (the Warrior) will crush your head, and you will strike his heel. Genesis 3:15

Here are the sentiments in God's heart, but not simply inked onto his skin. Here is God's Word, the Word that "became flesh and made his dwelling among us." *

The picture speaks volumes. And it explains the origin of the battle cry: "For those I love I will sacrifice." Blessed Christmas!

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only [Son] who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John 1:1&14)*
